

RESTAURANT SCAVENGER HUNT

You don't want your child to get up and wander around a restaurant, but her eyes still can. Challenge her to find restaurant-related items as you wait to be seated or for your food to arrive. Here's a list to get her started:

- Sign that has the word "please" on it
- TV showing the news/sports/cartoons
- Someone wearing an apron
- Family with three kids
- Four menu items containing cheese
- Condiment that is not ketchup
- EXIT sign
- Menu item that costs less than $3.49
- Fire extinguisher
- Fake flowers or plant
- Real flowers or plant
- Picture or description of a dessert that does not have chocolate in it
- Somebody with red/brown/blonde hair

Once you run out of ideas, switch the game up. Have your child challenge you to find the items she names!
